2018 SPEAKERS:

Tuesday, June 5: Kids on the Go” – Kristy Schena, Founder & Executive Director—Celebrating 20 years! Welcome back Kristy! She is now located at Pare Elementary Nonprofit Center in St. Clair Shores as well. Plan to join us as she brings us up to date on her organization. Her mission is to recognize and facilitate the goals of children with special needs and to maintain their current skills during the summer. Website: www.kidsonthegocamp.com.

Tuesday, June 19: VBS/Scholarship Presentations: On behalf of the Shorewood Kiwanis Human and Spiritual Values Committee, Pastor Dave Rutter, St. Paul Lutheran Church and Preschool, will present checks to various churches throughout SCS for their children’s summer Vacation Bible School.

Tuesday, July 3: Sharing the Vision – Dr. Carl Papa, Shorewood Kiwanis President: Just returning from the Kiwanis International Conference in Las Vegas, Dr. Papa will present all the wonderful updates & news received.

Tuesday, July 17: Michigan Department of Natural Resources Hunter Safety Program - Detective Cherie Mascarello, SCSPD: Hear about the importance of this training clinic and how youth benefit from attending the clinic. Information will be presented on how and where to register.

Tuesday, August 7: The Rainbow Connection - Brenda Moore, Community Development: Plan to attend! A great opportunity to hear about an organization where they are making dreams come true for Michigan children with life threatening illnesses. Website: www.rainbowconnection.org

Tuesday, August 21: Anchor Bay HS-Airforce Junior ROTC Unit – Instructor Retired Colonel Jeffrey Carrothers: It’s always so nice to see today’s young people looking forward to being future leaders. Col. Carrothers will share the cadet program along with how the Shorewood Kiwanis support is helping these young leaders.

Tuesday, September 4: Friendship Village (Karen Biafora to provide information)

Tuesday, September 18: HF Center for Autism & Developmental Disabilities-Cottage – Jessica Clow, BSW, RBT: Learn how HF is improving the lives of children & youth with special health care needs. Their mission is to provide specialized care, diagnosis and treatments to create life changing outcomes, one child at a time. Website: www.henryford.com/services/autism

Tuesday, October 2: St. Clair Shores Fire Department – Melissa Bodnar, Fire Chief: Do you have a plan in case of a fire in your home? How is the safety of your home? Here’s a great opportunity to learn about all the key areas of keeping you & your home safe. Plan to attend! You’ll be glad you did!

Tuesday, October 16: Boy Scouts of America – Summer Robinson, Unit Service Executive-Sunrise District: As a preferred charity, KI partners with the BSA to ensure boys, young men and women grow in character, citizenship, responsibility and leadership to achieve their greatest potential. Summer will share how we can work together and enhance our partnership. Website: www.michiganscounting.org

Tuesday, November 6: Hands of Hope – Ann Trerice: Meet our new neighbor at the Pare Nonprofit Center in SCS. “This organization partners with local nonprofits that work directly with children of Metro Detroit. Ann and her volunteers provide meals, gifts, holiday and birthday treats as well as helping those organizations when they need it. Many of the children served are in situations they have no control. “Sadness, abuse, poverty, malnutrition, and homelessness are the situations these children deal with daily”.

Tuesday, November 20: City of St. Clair Shores Parks & Recreation - Greg Esler, Director of Parks & Recreation: A great opportunity to hear what’s new within our Parks & Recreation Department. Plus, hear about the Special Children’s Needs Playground.

Tuesday, December 4: Lakeshore Family YMCA – Tina Quirk, Branch Operations Director: As a supporter of the Y’s Children’s Summer Camp Program, we will be updated along with other programs underway. Again, plan to attend. Website: ymcadetroit.org/lakeshore

Tuesday, December 18: Be On the Lookout! - Chad Hammer, SCPD Resource Officer: Watch out for the Scammers! BE AWARE OF YOUR SURROUNDINGS!

(Breakfast meetings take place at The Ram’s Horn (9 Mile & Jefferson) at 7:30-8:30am). You have a speaker in mind? Email sgwizdowski35@gmail.com or scsarrow@aol.com
